

ANTONILO DC. MAURICIO
General Manager
National Development Company

As the General Manager of the National Development Company, Anton Mauricio has the equivalent rank of Undersecretary with the Department of Trade and Industry. He has over 30 years of experience in investment, finance, and management consulting.

Prior to joining the government service, he set up two international finance companies in the Philippines. He is the founder of the Finance Education Center, a social enterprise supporting the largest coalition of finance academics and professionals in the country. He is the President of AIESEC Alumni Philippines.

GM Anton brings with him a wide array of work experience in the private sector. He transitioned into different areas including investment banking, technology, agriculture, engineering, ICT, property, and telecommunications, giving him an extensive business network in the Philippines and in Asia.

Before his appointment at the NDC, GM Anton was a C-level management consultant for strategy and finance. He set up the Chartered Institute for Securities & Investment (CISI Philippines) as the country president, and was the country head of Thomson Ratings Philippines, Inc. which is now Fitch Ratings. He was also connected with Mitchell Madison Group Global Management Consulting as the Director for Business Development. Prior to this, he was with Urban Bank, Jardine Land, and ICC Telecoms.

GM Anton has been actively involved in different professional network organizations such as the Rotary Club of Manila, Israel Chamber of Commerce of the Philippines, CISI Asia-Pacific Advisory Council, Makati Business Club, CIBI Foundation, and the Financial Executives Institute of the Philippines. He is also the founder of both the Finance Educators Association (Fin.Ed) and the Junior Confederation of Finance Associations - Philippines (JCFAP).

He completed his elementary and high school education at the Ateneo de Manila and obtained his BS Business Administration degree from the University of the Philippines in Diliman, Quezon City. He completed the Executive Program in Digital Leadership at the Singapore Management University.

Under his leadership, GM Anton envisions the NDC as a major contributor to the country's development, befitting its status as the oldest investment company and the state's investment arm.

GM Anton is from Davao City, where he was born, and Quezon City, where he grew up. He considers both Philippine cities as his hometown.
